

A Sharp Visit to Denmark – TR Customlevel by Sponge

First of all, thanks for downloading this level!

Story:

After hunting for yet another artefact to be added to her collection, Lara Croft ends up in the former industrial area of a small city in Denmark. Because one of her friends had asked her to drop by whenever she happens to be in these quarters of the world, she promptly decides to do so. However, she wouldn't show up empty-handed at about Christmas, of course...

The Level:

I've built this level for the Laraslevelbase Advent Calendar in a very short period, that is to say only six to seven weekends. However, of course I tried to keep up with my usual standards and I hope you'll like the result of my nonetheless quite intense labour.

Anyways, I trust you, the downloader, will respect the effort put into this level of mine by not ripping any of the material without permission. Please just play to enjoy!

If you're interested in any of the used textures and/ or objects, please feel free to contact me via email (mario_fighter@gmx.net) or private message at forum.laraslevelbase.org (where I use the nickname 'Sponge') and we may talk this over.

Further Information:

There are 3 Secrets.

Snow usually cushions the fall a bit, hence Lara is unlikely to break her neck when doing a dive. ;-)

NOTE:

- Lara can jump to the left from a pole; press the ⇐ (left arrow) symbol to make her do so.
- In the setup, put Volumetric FX on!
- In several cases, there's something hidden in a shatter in this level. There's a rare bug about this.
If the item doesn't appear after shooting the shatter, please try it again from another angle.

Credits:

All new objects, sounds and textures were made by me, personally.

Beta Testing:

Clara, Masha, Michael Otto

Thanks a jot!
